Boriska New Child

- Genius Russian Child Claims He is From Mars, Will Save Humanity from Nuclear Destruction; Who Is Boriska Kipriyanovich? | Science Times
- The RUSSIAN CHILD who has a WARNING for humanity Boris Kipriyanovich CASE - YouTube

Summary

The YouTube video focuses on Boris Kipriyanovich, often called Borisa, a Russian child prodigy who gained worldwide attention for his claims of a past life on Mars. He exhibited extraordinary cognitive abilities from infancy, such as holding his head up 15 days after birth and reading by the age of 1.5. By age 2, he was already drawing intricate geometric shapes and demonstrating advanced knowledge in astronomy, physics, and history. Boris's most controversial claim is that he lived a past life on Mars as a Martian pilot, possessing firsthand knowledge of Martian civilization, interstellar travel, and extraterrestrial geopolitics.

Boris's case has drawn attention from both believers and skeptics. Believers see him as an indigo child, a term in New Age spirituality used to describe a generation of children with extraordinary abilities destined to bring about spiritual change. Skeptics argue that while his knowledge is impressive, there is no verifiable evidence to support his claims. Boris has shared detailed information about Martian civilization, describing cities with advanced technology, protective domes, and interstellar spaceships. He also discussed the hidden potential of the pyramids in Egypt, claiming that they contain undiscovered chambers holding the secrets of the universe.

Main Topic - Key Details

- Boris Kipriyanovich claims he lived a past life on Mars and was a Martian pilot.
- He exhibited extraordinary cognitive abilities from infancy, such as advanced reading, drawing, and spatial awareness.
- Boris detailed Martian life, including cities within protective domes, advanced spacecraft propulsion systems, and spiritual consciousness.

- His knowledge extended to topics such as astronomy, interstellar travel, and Martian civilization.
- He made claims about the pyramids in Egypt, stating that they contain hidden chambers with cosmic knowledge.
- The indigo child concept is linked to Boris, suggesting that he is part of a wave of spiritually advanced children.

Names, Books, or Places Mentioned

- Lemuria: A lost civilization Boris claims to know about.

Unusual or Especially Interesting Points

- Boris claims to have been a Martian pilot in a past life, with detailed memories of Martian civilization.
- He described Martian technology, such as interstellar dropships and healing techniques that made diseases virtually non-existent.
- His assertion that the Egyptian pyramids contain hidden chambers with cosmic secrets adds an intriguing layer to his narrative.
- Boris's knowledge of astronomy and space travel was so advanced that he once corrected a visiting professor at the age of six.

The case of Boriska does share a number of parallels with the concept of the "New Child" as described in the prophecies of Benjamín Solari Parravicini. Here are the key areas of compatibility:

Compatibility Between Boriska and the "New Child" Concept:

- Extraordinary Abilities: Like the "New Child" in Parravicini's psychographs, Boriska exhibits exceptional abilities from a very young age, such as advanced reading, understanding of astronomy, and drawing geometric shapes. Both are described as possessing innate wisdom and knowledge beyond what is typically expected of children.
- Cosmic Knowledge: Boriska's knowledge of extraterrestrial civilizations, particularly Mars, aligns with the "New Child's" awareness of inhabited worlds and the cosmic truths mentioned in the psychographs. Parravicini speaks of the "New Child" being spiritually aware and unafraid to embrace the reality of UFOs and extraterrestrial life, which mirrors Boriska's detailed descriptions of Martian civilization.
- Spiritual Awareness and Mission: Boriska's claims of having lived a past life on Mars and his connection to interstellar travel echo the "New Child's" awareness of a divine mission and higher understanding of the universe, as described by Parravicini. The "New Child" is seen as part of a spiritual evolution, bringing change and enlightenment, which is comparable to Boriska's association with the concept of indigo children, who are believed to lead humanity toward spiritual growth.
- Connections to Ancient Mysteries: Boriska's statements about the pyramids in Egypt holding hidden cosmic knowledge are interesting in light of Parravicini's predictions of higher knowledge being revealed through enlightened beings. This suggests a link between Boriska's assertions and the "New Child's" role in uncovering hidden wisdom and guiding humanity.

Unusual and Especially Interesting Parallels:

- Boriska's ability to recall a past life on Mars and provide details about Martian geopolitics, technology, and interstellar travel is highly unusual. This mirrors the "New Child's" advanced understanding of extraterrestrial life and spiritual truths that go beyond human comprehension.
- His mention of the pyramids holding hidden knowledge resonates with Parravicini's emphasis on the "New Child" guiding humanity toward enlightenment and the discovery of cosmic secrets.

Conclusion:

The case of Boriska is compatible with the "New Child" concept from Benjamín Solari Parravicini's prophecies. Both depict a spiritually advanced child with extraordinary abilities and cosmic knowledge, destined to lead humanity through a transformative period of higher consciousness and connection with the universe.

The Enigmatic Beings from Mars

No Drawing

"Llegarán de Marte seres increíbles a la retina humana. El mundo sabrá de ellos, pero ellos no serán. Serán sin serlo. Serán "espejoides" o seres figurados alcanzados en reflejos y con palabras electromagnéticas deformes y conformadas."

B.S.P. 1960

"Beings incredible to the human retina will arrive from Mars. The world will know of them, but they will not be. They will be without being. They will be 'mirroroids' or figurative beings captured in reflections and with deformed and shaped electromagnetic words." B.S.P. 1960

---

Interpretation:

1. No Drawing

2. Text Analysis

The text speaks of mysterious entities from Mars, described as "incredible to the human retina," suggesting they are beyond ordinary visual or conceptual comprehension. The paradoxical phrases "they will not be" and "they will be without being" imply these beings exist in a form that challenges conventional understanding of existence. The term "mirroroids" and the description of their communication through "deformed and shaped electromagnetic words" indicate an unconventional, possibly non-physical form of presence and interaction.
